STATISTICS OF BEXES. In the forther ing facts touching the nor

ing facts tenching the numerical difference between the segs:

"The excess of male population in the United States, compared with that of the other sexpresents a marked difference with respect to other countries. While in the United States and Territories there is an excess of about 230,000 males in more than 31,000,000 of people, the females of the United Kingdom of Great Fettain and iredund outnumber the males some 577,000 in a population of little more than 29,000,000. This disparity is the result of many causes. The emigration from the mother country of men in the prime of life, and the large domands of their military, naval, and marine service, seem to account for some proportion of the excess of females; while immigration from all parts of Europe, our small military and from all parts of Europe, our small military and from all parts of Europe, our small military and try of men in the prime of life, and the large demands of their military, naval, and marine service, seem it secount fer some proportion of the excess of females; while immigration from all parts of Europe, our small military and have service, and the few losses we have such that the service, and the few losses we have such that it is a larger make population, in proportion, than can be shown in any country or the globe.

"The great excess of males in newly-settled Territories literature the influence of surigration in affecting a disparity in the sexue. The males of Galfornia outnumber the ismales near 67,000, or about one 5th of the population. In Illinois the excess of males amounts to about 93,000, or about one 5th of the population. In Massachusetts the females outnumber the males some 37,000. Michigan shows near 49,000 excess of males; Texas, 36,000; Wisconsin,43,000. In Colorado, the males are as twenty to one female. In Utah the numbers are nearly equal; and while in New York there is a small preponderance of females, the tusies are more numerous in Permaylvania."

Tun Case or Young Taney.—We learn that young Taney, a relative of Judge Taney, who was guilty of an unprovoked assault upon a Union citizen a few days ago, has been released, upon taking the oath off allegiance, and that he still diegraces the community by his presence. If we had not some time ago ceased to wonder at anything which transpired hereabouts, we should probably feel some surprise that the offender has not been punished as his crime deserved. Bome wise purpose has undoubtedly stepped in between the crime and the punishment, and beyond queetion, it is all right, although we are not able to see it.—Norfolk Union.

IMPORTANT MILITARY ARRESTS.—Two gentlemen—one the itev. Mr. Hoyt of Louisville, the other the Rev. Mr. Brooks of St. Louise—were arrested on Saturday forenoon, at the Hamilton and Dayton depot, on their arrival from Dayton, by Captain Flotoher of the Provost Guard, under orders from Col. Burbank. They were convoyed to the guard-house on Vine street, where their persons and haggage were searched, and they were then lodged in Newport barracks. We are not at liberty to give any additional particulars at present. The arrests were determised on or Friday last, and although we had the information, we were not allowed to publish it. Some rich developments may be expected.—Cincinnati Garatte, July 28.

Diminishe.—The following officers have been dismissed from the service: Captain Samuel L. Harrison, 95th Regiment New York Volunteers; Captain John C. Thompson, 104th Regiment New York Volunteers; 2d Lieutenant Eridge Green, 31st New York Volunteers; 1st Lieutenant Enoch C. Cloud, 57th Pennsylvania Volunteers
